Preamble

The credit union is a financial co-operative, which has open and voluntary membership within a common bond, democratic control by members and is non-discriminatory in all its undertakings.

The credit union is a public company limited by shares organised on the basis of the following Principles of Mutuality:

Principles of Mutuality

Customers Must be Members

1. Subject to the exceptions in Principles 2 and 3, a credit union may not accept a deposit from, or grant financial accommodation to, a person who is not a member.
2. A credit union may accept deposits from, or grant financial accommodation to, a body that does not have the power to acquire, or that the law prohibits from acquiring, the credit union's shares.
3. A credit union may accept deposits from, or grant financial accommodation to, another Approved Deposit Taking Institution.

Membership and Member Shares

How to become a member

4. A person can only become a member by subscribing for a member share.

How many member shares a credit union may issue a person

5. Subject to the exception in Principle 6, a credit union may issue only 1 member share to any person.
6. A trustee for an unincorporated association may be issued 1 member share in the trustee's own right, and 1 member share as trustee for the unincorporated association.

Consideration paid for membership shares

7. A credit union may issue a member share as wholly paid or partly paid.
8. A credit union may only issue a member share to a person in return for valuable consideration.
9. The person must provide consideration in cash or wholly in the form of an obligation to pay cash.

Voting

10. A member share may confer the right to 1 vote, and only 1 vote, at meetings of the credit union's members.

Dividends and Surplus

11. A member share may confer a right to participate in the credit union's profits through payment of dividends.
12. A member share must confer a right to participate in surplus when the credit union is wound up.
13. Any participation in profit or surplus must be on equitable terms.

Redemption and Transfer

14. A member share must confer on the member a right to redeem the member share on request, subject only to:
 - (a) compliance with prudential standards or prudential regulations; and
 - (b) any period of notice set out in the credit union's constitution.
15. Subject to the exceptions in Principle 16, a member share may not be transferred.
16. A trustee for an unincorporated association may transfer the member share that the trustee holds on trust for the unincorporated association.

Additional Shares*Definition*

17. All shares issued by a credit union other than member shares are additional shares.

Issue of additional shares only to members

18. A credit union may only issue additional shares to a person who has been a member of the credit union continuously for the past 6 months.

Voting

19. Subject to the exceptions in Principle 20, an additional share must not confer the right to vote.
20. Additional shares may confer the right to vote, at meetings of the holders of additional shares, only on questions affecting the continuing existence of the credit union.

Dividends and Surplus

21. An additional share may confer the right to participate in the credit union's profits through payment of dividends.
22. An additional share may confer a right to participate in surplus when the credit union is wound up but only to the extent of:
 - (a) repayment of capital paid on the additional shares; and
 - (b) payment of arrears of cumulative dividends.
23. The right to participate in profits and surplus conferred by additional shares may be preferred, equal or deferred to the rights conferred by the member shares.

Redemption and Transfer

24. An additional share may confer on the holder of the additional share a right to redeem or, subject to Principle 25, to transfer the additional share.
25. The holder of additional shares may only transfer additional shares to a person who has been a member of the credit union continuously for the past 6 months.

Accumulation of Securities

26. Accumulation of securities issued by a credit union must be restricted so that no person, or group of associated persons, may exercise a significant degree of influence over the affairs of the credit union.

Directors

27. Only a member of the credit union may be a Director of the credit union.

These Principles of Mutuality are not binding, except to the extent that the Constitution expressly provides otherwise.

1.6 Altering the Constitution

The Credit Union may modify or repeal this Constitution, or a provision of this Constitution, by Special Resolution.

Division 2. — Objects & Limit on Powers

Corporations Law Commentary

The Corporations Law provides that the credit union has the legal capacity and powers of an individual and of a body corporate: see s 124.

The Corporations Law allows the Constitution to set out the credit union's objects and to expressly limit the credit union's exercise of its powers: see s 125. The statement of objects is optional. However, the limit on power in Rule 2.2 is a requirement of the Principles of Mutuality.

2.1 Objects

The credit union has the following objects:-

- (a) to raise funds by subscription, deposit or otherwise, as authorised by Corporations Law;
- (b) to encourage savings amongst its members;
- (c) to promote co-operative enterprise;
- (d) to provide programs and services to its members to assist them to meet their financial, economic and social needs;
- (e) to promote, encourage and bring about human and social development among individual members and within the larger community within which members work and reside; and
- (f) to further the interests of members and the communities within which they work and live through co-operation with Credit Unions and Associations of Credit Unions, locally and internationally.

2.2 Customers Must be Members

- (1) The Credit Union may only provide financial accommodation to members, ADIs or bodies that do not have the power to acquire, or that the law prohibits from acquiring, the Credit Union's shares but may accept deposits from both members and non-members.
- (2) This Rule does not limit the powers of the credit union to invest funds otherwise than by way of financial accommodation to its members.

Division 3. — Membership

3.1 Admission to Membership

Corporations Law Commentary

A person becomes a member of the credit union if the person agrees to become a member and the credit union enters the person's name in the Register of Members: see s 231.

- (1) Subject to any other Rule allowing admission of members, the credit union may admit a person as a member only if:
 - (a) the person makes a written application in a form the credit union requires; and
 - (b) the person provides evidence, satisfactory to the credit union, that the person is eligible to be a member under the common bond; and
 - (c) the person applies for a member share.
 - (d) the person pays in cash, or wholly in the form of an obligation to pay cash, the subscription price for the member share.
- (2) The credit union may also admit a person as a member by registering a transfer or transmission of a member share to the person.
- (3) The board has an absolute discretion in exercising the credit union's power to admit members without any obligation to give a reason for not admitting a person as a member.
- 4) When the credit union admits a person as a member, the credit union must:
 - (a) issue the member share to the person;
 - (b) enter the person's particulars in the Register of Members as required by the Corporations Law, and
 - (c) give the person notice that it has admitted the person as a member.

3.2 Delegation of Power to Admit Members

The board may, by resolution, delegate its power to admit members to officers of the credit union.

3.3 Joint Members

Corporations Law Commentary

The Corporations Law recognises registration of joint members of a credit union. The joint members:

- are taken to be a single member of the credit union; and
- may also be members in their own right or jointly with others: see s 169(8).

- (1) The credit union may admit 2 or more persons eligible for admission under Sub-Rule 3.1(1) as a joint member of the credit union.
- (2) The persons constituting the joint member may determine the order in which their names appear in the Register of Members. If the persons constituting the joint member do not do so, the credit union may determine the order in which their names appear in the Register of Members.
- (3) The person named first in the Register of Members is the primary joint member. The credit union may duly send any notice, certificate or other document to the joint member by sending it to the primary joint member. Only the primary joint member is entitled to vote on behalf of the joint member, provided the primary joint member is not already entitled to a vote in accordance with this Constitution.
- (4) At any time, the joint member may give the credit union a notice requiring the credit union to change the primary joint member or otherwise change the order in which their names appear in the Register of Members. Each person constituting the joint member must sign the notice. The credit union must change the Register of Members as soon as practicable after receiving the notice.
- (5) Any person constituting a joint member may give an effective receipt for any dividend, distribution on winding-up or return of capital in relation to the joint member's shares.
- (6) The credit union may accept deposits from, or provide financial accommodation to, the joint member or to any person constituting the joint member.
- (7) The persons constituting a joint member are jointly and individually liable for any liability that the joint member may have in relation to the joint member's shares.
- (8) In this Constitution, the joint member is taken to be a person separate from the persons constituting the joint member.

3.4 Members Who are Minors

- (1) The board may admit a minor who is eligible to membership of the credit union.
- (2) Each member who is a minor must not exercise any voting rights of membership until he or she becomes an adult.

Division 4. — Termination of Membership

4.1 Removal of the Member's Name from the Register of Members

The credit union can remove the member's name from the Register of Members if:

- (a) the credit union redeems the member's member share under Rule 4.2, Rule 4.3 or Rule 4.4; or
- (b) the credit union exercises its right of forfeiture of the member's member share under Sub-Rule 6.3(2); or
- (c) the member surrenders the member's member share under Sub-Rule 6.3(5); or
- (d) the member is an individual and the member:
 - (i) dies; or
 - (ii) becomes a bankrupt and the credit union registers the member's trustee in bankruptcy as the holder of the member's member share under Rule 10.3; or
 - (iii) becomes mentally incapable and the credit union registers the member's trustee or guardian as the holder of the member's member share under Rule 10.4; or
- (e) the member is a body corporate and the member is deregistered or dissolved; or
- (f) the member is a trustee for an unincorporated association and the credit union registers the transfer of the member's member share to another person who is to act as trustee for the unincorporated association.

4.2 Member's Request for Termination

- (1) The credit union must repay the amount paid up in respect of a member share if:
 - (i) the member requests it; and
 - (ii) the member has repaid all outstanding financial accommodation; and
 - (iii) the member has discharged all other obligations to the credit union.
- (2) If a member makes a request under Sub-Rule (1), the credit union must redeem the member's member share as soon as practicable after receiving the request. However, the credit union may defer redeeming the member's member share until the board is satisfied that:
 - (a) the member has discharged all obligations to the credit union; and
 - (b) the credit union has sufficient profits available to pay the amount payable on redemption of the member share.

4.3 Termination by the Board

- (1) The credit union may redeem a member's member share by board resolution if:

- (a) the member fails to discharge the member's obligations to the credit union; or
 - (b) the member is guilty of conduct that the board reasonably considers to be detrimental to the credit union; or
 - (c) the member obtains membership by misrepresentation or mistake.
- (2) The credit union must give notice of the proposed resolution under Sub-Rule (1) to the member at least fourteen (14) days before considering the proposed resolution.
- (3) At the time the board considers the proposed resolution, the member is entitled:
- (a) to be present with or without the member's legal representative; and
 - (b) to be heard, either in person or through the member's legal representative.
- (4) On redeeming the member share, the credit union may pay the amount payable on redemption of the member share to the member by either:
- (a) sending a cheque to the member's address as set out in the Register of Members; or
 - (b) crediting any of the member's deposit accounts with the credit union
- at the time the member share is redeemed.

4.4 Termination Where Accounts Dormant

- (1) This Rule does not apply to a retirement savings account to the extent that the Retirement Savings Account Act 1997 (Cth) provides otherwise.
- (2) The credit union may:
- (a) determine that the member's deposit accounts are dormant; and
 - (b) redeem the member's member share
- by board resolution if the member has not initiated any transactions in relation to any deposit account in the twelve (12) months period before the date of the resolution.
- (3) The credit union must send notice of the proposed resolution under Sub-Rule (2) to the member at the member's last known address as shown in the Register of Members at least twenty-eight (28) days before considering the proposed resolution.
- (4) On redemption of the member share, the credit union must pay the amount payable on redemption of the member share into the member's account.
- (5) If the credit union redeems a person's member share under this Rule, the person may require the credit union to reinstate the person's deposit accounts at any time before the credit union pays the money in the deposit account in accordance with the relevant unclaimed money legislation. If the person requires the credit union to reinstate the person's deposit accounts:
- (a) the credit union must reinstate the person's deposit accounts as soon as practicable; and

- (b) if the credit union has redeemed the member's member share — the credit union must issue a member share to the person and may debit the member's deposit account for the subscription amount.

Banking Legislation Commentary

Section 69 of the Banking Act 1959 (Cth) deals with unclaimed money.

Division 5. — Issue of Shares

5.1 Classes of Shares

The credit union may only issue member shares.

5.2 Board Power to Issue Shares

- (i) The board may exercise the credit union's power to issue member shares on an on-going basis.
- (ii) The board has the power to issue additional classes of shares from time to time with the approval of the members.

5.3 Restrictions on Issue of Member Shares

- (1) The credit union must not issue:
 - (a) options to subscribe for member shares; or
 - (b) securities that may be converted to member shares; or
 - (c) securities with pre-emptive rights to member shares.
- (2) The credit union may only issue a member share on the basis that the person pays the full subscription price in cash on issue.
- (3) The credit union may only issue member shares in accordance with Subrule 3.1(4).
- (4) A member may hold 1 member share in the following capacities:
 - (a) as an individual; or
 - (b) as a person who constitutes a joint membership; or
 - (c) as a trustee for an unincorporated association, family trust or incorporated body but in any event the member shall only be entitled to 1 vote regardless of the number of memberships at any meeting of members.

Note: The credit union can issue a member share to a person who already constitutes a joint member. See Rule 3.3.

Division 6. — Calls, Forfeiture and Liens

6.1 Payment of Calls on Shares

Corporations Law Commentary

The Corporations Law states that a member holding partly paid shares must pay calls on them in accordance with the terms of issue. This Rule sets out the process for the board to make a call for payment on partly paid shares: see s 254M.

- (1) This Rule applies if some or all of the subscription price for a share is payable on the credit union calling up payment of some or all of the unpaid subscription price. This Rule applies in relation to a share subject to:
 - (a) any restrictions in the terms of issue for the share; and
 - (b) any special resolution providing that the credit union can only call up some or all of the subscription price for shares if the credit union becomes an externally-administered body corporate.
- (2) The credit union may call for payment of any amount of the unpaid subscription price for a share by board resolution. The credit union must give a member holding a share on which the credit union has made a call a notice setting out how much, when and how the member must make the payment. The credit union must give the notice at least fourteen (14) days before the time the member must pay the call.
- (3) The credit union may revoke or postpone a call on a share by board resolution. The credit union must give each member holding a share for which the credit union has revoked or postponed a call notice as soon as practicable after the board resolution.
- (4) In any proceeding to recover unpaid instalments, a member is conclusively presumed to be liable for a call if:
 - (a) the credit union's minutes record the board resolution calling for payment of the amount of the call;
 - (b) the member's name appeared in the Register of Members as holder of the share on the date of the board resolution; and
 - (c) the credit union gave the member a notice in accordance with Sub-Rule (2).
- (5) At any time, the credit union may accept from a member prepayment of any amount of the unpaid subscription price on a share.

6.2 Effect of Failure to Pay Unpaid Amounts

- (1) This Rule applies if a member does not pay any amount of the unpaid subscription price for a share at the time the amount becomes due. This Rule does not limit any other remedies that the credit union may have against the member.
- (2) The member must pay:

- (a) the amount due on the share; and
- (b) all costs and expenses that the credit union incurs (including, without limitation, legal expenses on a solicitor and own client basis or full indemnity basis, whichever is the higher) because the member did not pay the amount when it became due.

The credit union may waive all or part of the expenses payable under this Sub-Rule by board resolution.

- (3) At any time while the amount payable under Sub-Rule (2) remains unpaid in respect of a share, the credit union may give the member a default notice:
 - (a) setting out:
 - (i) how much is due; and
 - (ii) when the member must pay the amount due; and
 - (b) stating that, if the member does not pay the amount due by that date, the member will forfeit the share.

The date for payment must be at least fourteen (14) days after the date on which the credit union gives the member the default notice. In the absence of any manifest error, the default notice is conclusive evidence of the amount that the member must pay the credit union as at the date the credit union issues the default notice.

6.3 Forfeiture and Surrender

- (1) If a member does not comply with the default notice issued under Rule 6.2(3), the credit union may exercise its right of forfeiture of any share to which the default notice relates by board resolution. However, the member may always comply with the default notice at any time before forfeiture occurs.
- (2) The credit union may give the member a notice of forfeiture. In the absence of a manifest error, the notice is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in the notice against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.
- (3) The forfeited shares become the credit union's property. The credit union may redeem, sell or otherwise dispose of the forfeited shares on the terms and in the manner that the board determines.
- (4) The transferee's title is not affected by any irregularity or invalidity in connection with the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the shares. The transferee is not required to see the application of the purchase money.
- (5) A member may surrender any share to which a default notice relates. The credit union may deal with surrendered shares in the same way as it deals with forfeited shares.
- (6) A member whose shares have been forfeited remains liable to pay the credit union the amounts due:
 - (a) less any amount that the credit union must pay the member on redemption of the shares; and

- (b) less any amount that the credit union receives on sale or disposal of the forfeited shares.

6.4 Liens

- (1) The credit union may at any time exempt a share wholly or in part from this Rule by board resolution.
- (2) The credit union has a first and paramount lien on:
 - (a) every partly-paid share that a member holds; and
 - (b) the proceeds of sale of every partly paid share that the member holds; and
 - (c) dividends payable on every partly-paid share that the member holds, for all amounts, whether presently due or not;
 - (d) payable in relation to the share; or
 - (e) that the member or the member's estate otherwise owes to the credit union.
- (3) If an amount secured by a lien in Sub-Rule (2) is presently due, the credit union may give the holder of the share a sale notice:
 - (a) setting out:
 - (i) how much is due; and
 - (ii) when the member must pay the amount due; and
 - (b) stating that, if the member does not pay this amount by that date, the credit union may sell the share.

The date for payment must be at least fourteen (14) days after the date on which the credit union gives the member the sale notice. In the absence of any manifest error, the sale notice is conclusive evidence of the amount that the member must pay the credit union as at the date the credit union issues the sale notice.

- (4) If a member does not pay the amount due by the date stated in the sale notice under Sub-Rule (3), the credit union may sell the shares on the terms and in the manner that the board determines. The credit union may:
 - (a) execute a share transfer to give effect to a sale of the shares; and
 - (b) register the transferee as the holder of the shares.

The transferee's title is not affected by any irregularity or invalidity in connection with the sale of the shares. The transferee is not required to see the application of the purchase consideration.

- (5) A member whose shares have been sold remains liable to pay the credit union all amounts that the member or the member's estate owes to the credit union, whether or not presently due, less any consideration that the credit union receives on sale of the shares.

Division 7. — Dividends

Corporations Law Commentary

The Corporations Law states that dividends may be paid only out of profits: see s 254T.

7.1 Payment of Dividends

- (1) The board may determine that the credit union pay a dividend on shares to which a right to participate in dividends attaches and may determine:
- (a) the amount of the dividend; and
 - (b) the time for payment of the dividend; and
 - (c) the method of payment of the dividend.

The method of payment may include the payment of cash, the issue of securities and the transfer of assets. Where the credit union pays the dividend other than in cash, the board may fix the value of any securities issued or assets transferred.

- (2) If the terms of issue for a share require the General Meeting's approval of any payment of a dividend on the share, the board's determination under Sub-Rule (1) is effective only if the General Meeting approves the dividend before the time for payment of the dividend arrives. The General Meeting may not vary the board's determination.

Corporations Law Commentary

Section 254V(1) provides that the credit union only incurs a debt when the time fixed for payment of the dividend arrives. The decision to pay the dividend may be revoked at any time before then.

7.2 Differential Dividends

Subject to the terms on which shares in a class are issued, the board may determine dividends to different members in a class that differ:

- (a) in amount; and
- (b) in the method of payment (whether cash, securities, assets or any combination of them).

7.3 Interest on Dividends

Interest is not payable on a dividend.

Division 8. — Share Certificates

Corporations Law Commentary

Credit unions do not have to issue certificates to members for member shares: see Corporations Regulations reg 12.08.08. However, credit unions that issue other classes of shares have to issue certificates for those other classes of shares: see s 1096.

A member whose certificate is lost or destroyed may apply to the credit union for a new certificate. The credit union must issue a new certificate although it may require the member to do one or more of the following:

- advertise the loss or destruction of the certificate; and
- provide the credit union with an indemnity: see s 1089.

8.1 Share Certificates

Except in relation to a member share a member may require the credit union to issue to the member, without charge, 1 certificate for each other class of shares in the credit union that the member holds.

Division 9. — Transfer of Shares (other than Member Shares)

9.1 Form of Share Transfer

A member wishing to transfer the member's shares must use a share transfer that complies with the following requirements:

- (a) the share transfer relates to 1 class of shares only;
- (b) the share transfer is in writing; and
- (c) the share transfer is:
 - (i) in a form that the board approves; or
 - (ii) in any other usual or common form.

Note: Sub-Rule 9.3(1) prevents the credit union registering share transfers in some situations, even though the share transfer complies with the requirements set out in this Rule.

9.2 Ownership of Share Transfer

On receiving a share transfer (or a document that appears to be a share transfer), the credit union becomes the owner of the share transfer and has a right to exclusive possession of the share transfer.

9.3 Registration of Share Transfer

- (1) The credit union must not register a share transfer if:
 - (a) the terms of issue for the shares prohibit the transfer of the shares to the transferee;
 - (b) the share transfer is not in the form set out in Rule 9.1: or
 - (c) the transfer of shares is dutiable and the share transfer is not duly stamped.
- (2) The credit union may refuse to register a share transfer unless:
 - (a) the shares are fully-paid;
 - (b) the credit union does not have a lien on the shares;
 - (c) the transferor has executed the share transfer;
 - (d) the transferee has executed the share transfer;
 - (e) a certificate for the shares accompanies the share transfer;
 - (f) the board has all information that it reasonably requires to establish the right of the transferor to transfer the shares; and

- (g) the board has all information that it reasonably requires to establish that the transferee agrees to be a member of the credit union.
- (3) The transferor of shares remains the holder of those shares until the credit union enters the transferee's name as holder of those shares in the Register of Members.

Corporations Law Commentary

If a credit union refuses to register a transfer of shares, it must give the transferee notice of the refusal within 2 months of the date the share transfer was lodged at the credit union's registered office: see s 1093.

9.4 Powers of Attorney

- (1) The credit union may assume that a power of attorney authorising the attorney to transfer some or all of the member's shares that a member appears to have granted:
- (a) is a valid and effective grant of the power it appears to grant; and
 - (b) continues in full force and effect.
- (2) The credit union may rely on the power of attorney until it receives a notice informing it that:
- (a) the power of attorney has been revoked; or
 - (b) the member has died.

9.5 Suspension of Registration

The board may suspend the registration of share transfers at the times and for the periods it determines. The periods of suspension must not exceed thirty (30) days in any 1 calendar year.

Division 10. — Transmission of Shares

10.1 Transmission and the Common Bond

The credit union may register a person as holder of a member's shares under this Division even though the person is not eligible to be a member under the common bond.

10.2 Transmission of Shares on Death

- (1) On the death of a member, the credit union may recognise either the personal representative of the deceased member or another person who appears to the board to be entitled to the deceased member's estate as being entitled to the deceased member's interest in the shares.
- (2) If the personal representative gives the board the information it reasonably requires to establish an entitlement to be registered as holder of the member's shares, the personal representative may elect to:
 - (a) be registered as the holder of the shares; or
 - (b) apply to terminate the membership.

10.3 Transmission of Shares on Bankruptcy

Corporations Law Commentary

The Corporations Law sets out the rights of the trustee of the bankrupt's estate in relation to shares held by the bankrupt member, whether or not the trustee has become registered as holder of the shares.

The trustee has the same rights as to dividend, transfer of shares and sale of share as the bankrupt member had. Furthermore, the Constitution cannot override the trustee's rights: see s 1091A.

If the trustee of a bankrupt member's estate gives the board the information it reasonably requires to establish the trustee's entitlement to be registered as holder of the member's shares, the trustee may require the credit union to register the trustee as holder of the member's shares.

10.4 Transmission of Shares on Mental Incapacity

If a person, entitled to shares because of a member's mental incapacity, gives the board the information it reasonably requires to establish the person's entitlement to be registered as a holder of the member's shares:

- (a) the person may require the credit union to register the person as holder of the member's shares; and
- (b) whether or not registered as the holder of the shares, the person has the same rights, obligations and restrictions as the member.

Division 11. — Holding Members' Meetings

Corporations Law Commentary

Holding a members' meeting

A members' meeting must be held at a reasonable time and place: see s 249R.

A members' meeting can be held using any technology (such as video conferencing), provided that it gives the members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting: see s 249S.

Notice of members' meeting

At least 21 days notice must be given of a members' meeting. A meeting can be called on shorter notice with the consent of the requisite number of members, but not to remove a director or auditor: see 249H.

Written notice must be given individually to each director. Written notice must be given individually to each member who has elected to receive notice of meetings of members of the Credit Union.

In the case of joint members, notice is given to the first named member in the Register of Members. See Sub-Rule 3.3(3).

Notice must be given personally or by post (section 249J). See Sub-Rule 1.5(4) as to service by post or by fax.

The auditor must also receive the notice convening a General Meeting and other communication members are entitled to receive: see s 249K.

Content of notice

A notice convening a members' meeting must

- set out the place, date and time of the meeting and the technology to be used to conduct the meeting if it is to be held in 2 or more places;
- state the general nature of the meeting's business;
- state the terms of any special resolution and the fact that it is proposed as a special resolution;
- state, in relation to proxies:
 - that the member has a right to appoint a proxy;
 - whether or not the proxy needs to be a member of the credit union; and
 - that a member entitled to cast 2 or more votes may appoint 2 proxies and may specify the proportion or number of votes each proxy is appointed to exercise: see s 249L.

A notice convening a members' meeting may

- specify a place, facsimile number and electronic address for the purposes of proxy appointment.

Auditor's right to attend

The Auditor has a right to attend any General Meeting and to speak: see s 249V.

Members' right to give notice of a resolution

Members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast at a General Meeting or at least one hundred (100) members may give the credit union notice of a resolution that they propose to move at a General Meeting: see s 249N.

If the Notice of Meeting has already been issued, then this resolution is to be considered at the next General Meeting that is held more than 2 months after the notice is given: see s 249O.

Members' request for statement to be distributed

The credit union must distribute a statement about a resolution, or other matter to be considered at a General Meeting, as requested by a certain number of members: see s 249P.

The AGM

A company must hold an AGM within 5 months after the end of its financial year: see s 250N.

The business of an AGM may include the following, even if not referred to in the notice of meeting:

- consideration of the annual financial report, directors' report and auditor's report;
- election of directors;
- appointment of auditor;
- fixing of the auditor's remuneration: see s 250R.

The Chairman of the AGM must:

- allow members a reasonable opportunity to ask questions about, and to comment on, the management of the credit union: see s 250S; and
- allow members a reasonable opportunity to ask the auditor or the auditor's representative, when present, questions relevant to the conduct of the audit and the preparation and content of the auditor's report: see 250T.

11.1 Calling Meetings of MembersCorporations Law Commentary*Members' right to call a general meeting

A General Meeting must be held if one hundred (100) members ask for it. The board has to call a General Meeting within twenty-one (21) days after the request and the Meeting itself must be held within 2 months: see ss 249D and 249F. In any case, members who hold at least 5% of the votes can call and arrange to hold a Meeting themselves: see s 249F.

- (1) The board must cause a General Meeting to be called the "Annual General Meeting" to be held within 5 months after the close of the credit union's financial year.
- (2) All other General Meetings of the credit union are Special General Meetings which are convened:
 - (i) by the Secretary upon the direction of the board; or
 - (ii) if the required number of members as per Corporations Law requisition such a meeting.
- (3) The business of the Annual General Meeting is:
 - (i) Ordinary business
 - (a) to confirm the minutes of the last preceding Annual General Meeting and of any General Meetings held since that meeting;
 - (b) to receive from the board, auditors or any officers of the credit union reports upon the transactions of the credit union during the financial year, including balance sheets and profit and loss accounts;
 - (c) to announce the results of postal ballot for the election of directors;

- (d) to determine the remuneration of directors;
 - (e) to approve the rate of dividend as per Rules 7.1 and 7.2; and

- (ii) Special Business
- Business other than such business of the Annual General Meeting as is by this Rule termed ordinary business.
- (4) A General Meeting may transact special business of which notice is given in accordance with Notice of General Meetings.

- (i) must state the objects of the meeting in the requisition; and
 - (ii) are entitled to be paid by the credit union reasonable expenses incurred in convening a meeting should the board fail to call a General Meeting within twenty-one (21) days after receipt of their requisition.
- (6) The business of a requisitionists' meeting may, in addition to the objects of the meeting set out in the requisition, set down other business to be dealt with at such meeting and the board shall have sole control of the agenda for such meeting.

11.2 Adjourning Meetings of Members

- (1) A duly constituted meeting may consent, or direct the Chairman, to adjourn the meeting in which case no business is to be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- (2) Except when a meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-one (21) days, it is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
- (3) A notice of an adjournment for a meeting adjourned for more than twenty-one (21) days is to be given to members at least fourteen (14) days before the date of the adjourned meeting and must specify the place, the date and the hour of the meeting, and state the general nature of the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

11.3 Proceedings at Meetings of Members

- (1) A General Meeting must not deal with an item of business unless a quorum is present.
- (2) A quorum is constituted by thirty (30) members personally present at the meeting, or in the case of a meeting of a class of members where the only members eligible to attend the meeting are members of the relevant class, then a quorum, where the number of eligible members is less than fifty (50) members of the class, is constituted by fifty (50) percent of the members of that class eligible to attend and vote at the members' meeting.
- (3) If a quorum is not present within thirty (30) minutes of the time appointed for the meeting:
 - (a) the meeting stands adjourned either to the same day in the next week at the same time and place; or
 - (b) the meeting stands adjourned to such other day or place as the board determines and so notifies members; or
 - (c) the meeting lapses if it has been a meeting convened by a requisition of members.
- (4) If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within thirty (30) minutes of the time appointed for the meeting the adjourned meeting lapses.
- (5) Where a General Meeting's attention is drawn to the absence of a quorum and a quorum is not present within ten (10) minutes, then:
 - (a) in the case of ordinary business, the meeting stands adjourned to either the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such other day or place as the board determines and so notifies members; or
 - (b) in the case of special business, the item lapses.
- (6)
 - (a) The Chairman of the board presides as Chairman at every General Meeting or where the Chairman is not present or is unwilling to act, the Deputy Chairman presides as Chairman at that General Meeting; or
 - (b) If the Chairman or the Deputy Chairman is not present within thirty (30) minutes after the time appointed for the meeting or is unwilling to act, the members present are to elect one of their members to be Chairman of that meeting.
- (7) The Standing Orders for General Meetings in Appendix 3 apply to the conduct of debate at members' meetings.

Division 12. — Voting at Members' Meetings

12.1 Voting

Each member is entitled to 1 vote only, notwithstanding the number of shares in which they have an interest.

- (1) All voting is by a show of hands unless a poll is demanded in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution.
- (2) An ordinary resolution is passed by a simple majority of votes.
- (3) A special resolution is passed by a majority of not less than seventy-five (75) percent.
- (4) Before a member's meeting votes on a resolution, the Chairman must inform the meeting:
 - (a) how many proxy documents the credit union has received that validly appoint a person present at the meeting as proxy;
 - (b) how many of these proxy documents direct the proxies how to vote on the resolution; and
 - (c) how the proxies are directed to vote on the resolution.
- (5) In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded does not have a casting vote in addition to his or her deliberative vote. In this case, the motion is "not carried".

12.2 A Poll

Corporations Law Commentary

Section 250L allows the following to demand a poll:

- 5 members entitled to vote on the resolution;
- members with at least 5% of the votes to be cast on the resolution; or
- the Chairman.

A proxy may join a demand for a poll: see s 249Y(1)

Section 250K states that a poll may be demanded on any question and that the demand may be withdrawn.

- (1) At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting is decided on a show of hands or by such other means as the meeting may decide unless, before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands, a poll is demanded:
 - (a) by the Chairman; or
 - (b) by 5 members present and entitled to vote.
- (2) Unless a poll is so demanded a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the meeting is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- (3) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- (4) If a poll is duly demanded it may be taken in the way in which the Chairman directs, but a poll demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment must be taken forthwith.
- (5) The result of the poll shall be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

12.3 Body Corporate Representatives

Corporations Law Commentary

Section 250D says that a body corporate member may appoint a representative to exercise the member's powers at a general meeting. The appointment can be a standing appointment. The appointment can set out restrictions on the representative's powers. A member can appoint more than 1 representative but only 1 can exercise the member's powers at any one time.

- (1) A member that appoints a body corporate representative must give the credit union:
 - (a) a certified copy of the board resolution appointing the representative; or
 - (b) a copy of the instrument appointing the representative

as soon as practicable after appointing the representative, and in any event before any members' meeting at which the representative may exercise the member's rights.
- (2) In addition to the rights and powers a member's representative may exercise under the Corporations Law, the representative may exercise the member's right to vote in a ballot to appoint directors by election.

12.4 Proxies

Corporations Law Commentary

Sections 249X to 250C set out members' powers to appoint proxies and the rights and obligations of proxies.

- (1) Appointment

- (i) A member of the company who is entitled to cast a vote at a meeting of the company's members may appoint an adult person as the member's proxy to attend and vote for the member at the meeting.
- (ii) The board may determine the form of the proxy document from time to time including , at its discretion, an electronic version
- (iii) An appointment of a proxy is valid if it is signed by the member of the company making the appointment and contains the following information:
 - (a) the member's name and address; and
 - (b) the company's name; and
 - (c) the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy; and
 - (d) the meetings at which the appointment may be used.
- (iv) An appointment may be a standing one.
- (v) The appointment will not be valid if it does not contain all of the information specified in Sub-Rule 12.4(1)(iii).
- (vi) An undated appointment is taken to have been dated on the day it is given to the company.
- (vii) An appointment does not have to be witnessed.
- (viii) A later appointment revokes an earlier one if both appointments could not be validly exercised at the meeting.

(2) Voting

- (i) Proxy votes are only exercised during a vote by poll.
- (ii) If the instrument of appointment specifies the way the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution then:
 - (a) if the proxy is the Chairman;
 - (i) the Chairman must demand a poll on the resolution; and
 - (ii) the proxy must vote and must vote in accordance with the instructions; or
 - (b) (i) if the proxy is not the Chairman, the proxy need not vote, but if the proxy does vote, it must be in accordance with instructions; and
 - (ii) if the proxy has 2 or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on the resolution, the proxy must vote in accordance with instructions.
- (iii) The proxy must not vote on a show of hands.

(iv) If a proxy is also a member, Sub-Rule (2)(ii) does not affect the way that the person can cast any votes they hold as a member.

(v) A person who contravenes Rule 12.4(2)(ii) is guilty of an offence, but only if their appointment as proxy resulted from the company sending to members:

- (a) a list of persons willing to act as proxies; or
- (b) a proxy appointment form holding the person out as being willing to act as proxy.

(3) Proxy Documents

(1) For an appointment of proxy for a meeting of the company's members to be effective, the following documents must be received by the company at least forty-eight (48) hours before the meeting:

- (a) the proxy's appointment; and
- (b) if the appointment is signed by the appointor's attorney – the authority under which the appointment was signed or a certified copy of the authority.

(2) If a meeting of the company's members has been adjourned, an appointment and any authority received by the company at least forty-eight (48) hours before the resumption of the meeting are effective for the resumed part of the meeting.

(3) The company receives an appointment authority when it is received at any of the following:

- (a) the company's registered office; or
- (b) a fax number at the company's registered office; or
- (c) a place, fax number or electronic address specified for the purpose in the notice of meeting.

(4) An appointment of a proxy is ineffective if:

- (a) the company receives either or both the appointment or the authority at a fax number or electronic address; and
- (b) a requirement (if any) in the notice of meeting that:-
 - (i) the transmission be verified in a way specified in the notice; or
 - (ii) the proxy produce the appointment and authority (if any) at the meeting; is not complied with.

(5) The notice of meeting may reduce the period of forty-eight (48) hours referred to in Rules 12.4.3(1) and 12.4.3(2).

(4) Rights of Proxies

A proxy appointed to attend and vote for a member has the same rights as the member:

- (a) to speak at the meeting provided the member for whom the proxy is held is not present at the meeting; and
- (b) to vote (but only to the extent allowed by the appointment); and
- (c) to join in a demand for a poll.

(5) Proxy Vote Valid even if member dies, revokes appointment etc.

- (1) A proxy who is not entitled to vote on a resolution as a member may vote as a proxy for another member who can vote if their appointment specifies the way they are to vote on the resolution and they vote in accordance with instructions.
- (2) Unless the company has received written notice of the matter before the start or resumption of the meeting at which a proxy votes, a vote cast by the proxy will be valid even if, before the proxy votes:
 - (a) the appointing member dies; or
 - (b) the appointing member is mentally incapacitated; or
 - (c) the member revokes the proxy's appointment; or
 - (d) the member revokes the authority under which the proxy was appointed by a third party; or
 - (e) the member transfers the share in respect of which the proxy was given; and
 - (f) the proxy's authority to vote is suspended while the member is present at the meeting.

12.5 Objections

- (1) An objection to the qualification of a voter at a meeting of the company's members:
 - (a) may only be made at the meeting at which the vote objected to is cast; and
 - (b) must be determined by the Chairman, whose decision is final.

Division 13. — Directors — Appointment & Vacation of Office

13.1 Number of Directors

- (1) The board shall comprise a minimum of seven (7) and a maximum of nine (9) Directors including any casual vacancies of elected Directors that may occur from time to time.

Corporations Act Commentary

Section 201A(2) provides that credit unions must have at least 3 Directors (not counting alternate Directors) and that at least 2 must ordinarily reside in Australia.

13.2 Composition of the Board

- (1) Subject to 13.1(1) and section 203E of the Corporations Act, the Directors may determine the number of Directors that comprise the board from time to time.
- (2) At least seven (7) Directors must be either elected under clause 13.4(1) or appointed to fill a casual vacancy of an elected Director under clause 13.4(3).
- (3) Where a vacancy occurs on the board in relation to an elected Director, the board at its discretion:
 - (a) may select and appoint a replacement Director to fill the casual vacancy under clause 13.4(3); or
 - (b) if it is determined by the board that special circumstances exist, may allow the vacancy to continue until the AGM immediately following the occurrence of the vacancy, where the vacancy will be filled pursuant to clause 13.4(1).
- (4) Where a vacancy occurs on the board in relation to an appointed Director, the board at its discretion:
 - (a) may select and appoint a replacement Director pursuant to clause 13.4(2); or
 - (b) may resolve not to fill the vacancy

13.3 Eligibility to be a Director

- (1) An individual is eligible to be a Director if the person:
 - (a) is a member; and unless:

- the interest does not have to be disclosed: see s 191.

A Director who has a material personal interest in a matter that is being considered at a board meeting that must be disclosed to the directors must not:

- (a) be present when the matter is being considered at the meeting; or unless the board passes a resolution:

- (i) identifying the Director, the nature and extent of the Director's interest in the matter and its relation to the affairs of the credit union; and
- (ii) stating that the directors are satisfied that the interest should not disqualify the Director from being present or voting.

 - in connection with proceedings for relief under the Corporations Law where the court denies relief.

Every officer and former officer, auditor or agent of the company (as defined in the Law) or wholly owned subsidiary of the company shall be indemnified out of the property of the company against any liability incurred by him or her in his or her capacity as officer, auditor or agent of the company in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which he or she is acquitted or in connection with any application in which relief is under the law granted to him or her by the court.
